

On "Lord I have cried": Greatmartyr Barbara

Tone 2

When at the dreadful tri- bu - nal, the most blessed Ju- li- a- na, be- hold- ing the glorious mar- tyr Bar- ba- ra, who was co- vered with wounds, her whole body lacerated by di- vers tor- tures, cried out with fervent tears:

“O Word of God Who lovest mankind, grant now that I may share in her tortments!”

The holy Barbara and Juliana, possessed of a single yearning towards piety, contended against the enemy, and, having mightily vanquished him, they were vouchsafed glory by Christ God.

Wherefore, having done away with destructive passions, they bestow healings upon all the faithful.
