Both now ...

Tone 1 Troparion of the Dormition White Book page 128

The Kathismata from the Octoechos, Tone 3, with the verses on “Both now ...” of the Dormition as follows:

First Kathisma

Shout, O David, and declare: what is this present feast? And he replies: “Today has Christ translated unto the mansions above her from whom He was born without seed, and whom I have extolled in the Book of the Psalms as daughter, child of God and virgin.” Wherefore do mothers, daughters, and brides of Christ shout in joy: “Rejoice, O thou who hast been translated to the royal courts on high!”

Second Kathisma

The honourable choir of the wise Apostles was wondrously convened, O all-praised Theotokos, to bury with dignity thine immaculate, holy body. And with them the hosts of Angels in admiration and solemnity extolled with hymns thine Assumption, which we celebrate in faith.

Polieley is sung
