Third Kathisma for Saint Haralambos

In thy godly deeds thou didst shine brightly, quenching the deluded error of false belief, for thou wast truly Christ’s noble warrior. And having put the transgressors to open shame, thou hast received shining trophies of victory. O Great Martyr Haralambos, divinely glorious, entreat Christ God to grant great mercy unto us.

Glory ...

Awed by the purity of thy life, O Martyr, and by the exceeding splendour of thy martyrdom, O Saint Haralambos, Greece was amazed; and with joy we all cry out: On this day we revere thine all-venerable head, O Saint. Crush the brazen insolence and conceit of our enemies; and deliver us from all kinds of danger and disease, as we sing thy praise.

Both now ...

With one voice let us hymn God’s Virgin Mother, who in her womb contained the Uncontainable and with her milk hath nourished Him that nourisheth all creation; her that alone hath availed to redeem the whole race of man from the curse of ancient times. Let us cry out with one accord to Mary, our immaculate Lady: Rejoice, O Full of Grace.
