Palm Sunday ♦ The Entrance of Our Lord Jesus Christ into Jerusalem

FIRST ANTIPHON

[Music on website]

I love the Lord because He has heard the voice of my supplication.

Through the prayers of the Theotokos, O Saviour, save us!

Because He inclined His ear to me; therefore I will call on Him as long as I live.

Through the prayers of the Theotokos, O Saviour, save us!

The snares of death encompassed me; the pangs of hell laid hold on me.

Through the prayers of the Theotokos, O Saviour, save us!

I suffered distress and anguish, then I called upon the Name of the Lord.

Through the prayers of the Theotokos, O Saviour, save us!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Through the prayers of the Theotokos, O Saviour, save us!

SECOND ANTIPHON

[Music on website]

I kept my faith, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted."

O Son of God, Who sat upon the foal, save us who sing to Thee: Alleluia!

What shall I render to the Lord for all the things He has given me?

O Son of God, Who sat upon the foal, save us who sing to Thee: Alleluia!

I will receive the cup of salvation, and call on the Name of the Lord.

O Son of God, Who sat upon the foal, save us who sing to Thee: Alleluia!

I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all His people.

O Son of God, Who sat upon the foal, save us who sing to Thee: Alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
both now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O only-begotten Son and Word of God. O Thou Who art Immortal, yet for our salvation didst deign to be incarnate of the holy Mother of God and Ever-Virgin Mary; and without change wast made man; Who also wast crucified for us; and by death didst overcome death: save us, O Christ, our God; one Person of the Holy Trinity, glorified together with the Father and the Holy Spirit.

THIRD ANTIPHON

Reader: O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever!

Troparion of Palm Sunday in Tone 1

By raising Lazarus from the dead before Thy passion, Thou didst confirm the universal resurrection, O Christ God.

we cry out to Thee, O Vanquisher of Death:
"Hosanna in the highest!// Blessed is He that comes in the Name of the Lord."

Reader: Let the House of Israel say: For He is good; for His mercy endures forever!
By raising Lazarus from the dead ...

Reader: Let the house of Aaron say: For He is good, for His mercy endures forever!
By raising Lazarus from the dead ...

Reader: Let all those who fear the Lord say: For He is good, for His mercy endures forever!
By raising Lazarus from the dead ...

EPISTLE

The Reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Philippians.

Ye Brethren: Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let all men know your forbearance. The Lord is at hand. Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you.

[Philippians 4:4-9]

Choir: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

THE GOSPEL

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus who had died was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (he who was to betray him), said, "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it. Jesus said, "Let her alone, let her keep it for the day of my burial. The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me." When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus also to death, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus. The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!" His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him. The crowd that had been with Jesus when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

[John 12:1-18]
